ITALIA

Italia 1990 is the fourteenth international 'Festival of Soccer' since the tournament was masterminded by Jules Rimet in 1930. In those 60 years, Italy have won the trophy three times and this is their first staging of the event since their home victory in 1934. Will history repeat itself?

For two hot weeks in June, the best of the world's footballing nations are competing for places in the second round. From Milan in the North to Cagliari on Sardinia, Italy's cities play host to teams from 24 countries – some world powers, some emerging third world states – all in pursuit of soccer's highest accolade.
